RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Patrick Connolly, son of Bridget and the late Patrick Connolly, was held Monday morning from St. Patrick's church. He was well known in the West End, and many friends called at the home, 1829 Baird street, to offer condolence to the bereaved mother.

John Farrell, aged fifty-four and long a resident of the West End, died Saturday night at his home, 2213 Bank street. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Della Farrell; five sons, Joseph, Gilbert, George, Earl and Leo Farrell; two daughters, Mrs. L. Gregoire and Mrs. Regina Farrell; and two sisters, Mrs. Patrick Hardy and Mrs. George Loomis. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Cecilia's church, attended by many mourning friends.

Monday morning the funeral of Thomas S. Francis was held from St. John's church. Rev. Father Schumann officiating at the solemn requiem mass. The deceased was thirty-one years old and resided at 429 East Walnut street. For years he had been in the cigar business and was widely known and popular. Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Francis; two brothers, Louis and George Francis; and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Hoffer and Miss Edna Francis.

With the death of William Doll, 914 South Fifth street, St. Louis Bertrand's church loses another of its old and faithful members. He was seventy-seven years old, and for the greater part of his life had been engaged in the dry goods business, from which he had been retired for some time. Besides his wife, Mrs. Georgia A. Doll, he is survived by one daughter, Miss Catherine Doll, The funeral was held Monday morning and was attended by the Catholic Knights and Ladies, in which society the deceased had been a pioneer member.

COMIC OPERA.

Much interest is being taken by the friends of St. Martin's Sodality Club in the coming production of the comic opera "Pinafore" and everything points to a grand success. It will be given at St. Martin's Hall, Shelby and Gray, on Sunday evening, November 19, the principal parts being taken by the following:

Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B.—Louis Hoffmann.
Capt. Corcoran—Herman Holz-knecht.
Ralph Rackstraw—Leo A. Krebs.
Dick Deadeye—Theodore Schmoll.
Boatswain—Edward D. Krebs.
Midshipmate—Victor Bitters.
Josephine (Captain's daughter)—Miss Louise Wiegand.
Little Buttercup—Miss Loraine Praecht.
Cousin Hebe—Miss Walda Holz-knecht.
The choir will consist of forty voices.

PAID TO BILLY.

You'll have to hand the palm to Billy Repetto for being the most enthusiastic Wilson supporter in this district. He talked Wilson night and day and even on election night despite the discouraging reports he predicted that the President would be re-elected. He led the grand march of Wilson supporters on Fourth avenue Thursday night and was cheered all along the route.

TAKEN HOME.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Ewell Craik, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, who has been at the Norton Infirmary several weeks, following an automobile accident in which he and his son were seriously injured, is rapidly recovering, and on Monday was able to be removed to his home near Glenview. This news brought a feeling of relief to his church members and friends throughout the city, many of the latter Catholics. For several days after the accident Dr. Craik's life hung in the balance, and his recovery is attributed to his remarkable constitution.

ANNUAL TURKEY CONTEST.

The annual turkey contest, euchre and lotto party for the benefit of Holy Cross church is announced to take place on the afternoon and evening of Monday, November 27, in the hall at Thirty-second and Broadway. The men and women of the parish are preparing to make this a most enjoyable affair, and will award many turkeys and gold pieces at the conclusion of the games. Tickets will be twenty-five cents, good for either euchre or lotto, and an excellent lunch will be served for fifteen cents.

GRAND LOTTO.

A grand lotto entertainment will be given next Thursday night in Gambrinus Hall, Shelby and Rose-lance, for the benefit of St. Aloysius church at Pewee Valley. The Rev. Father Boes, pastor of the church, hopes to meet many of his friends on this occasion, when valuable prizes, especially country products, will be awarded. This struggling congregation has worked manfully and is obliged to make up and every effort and sacrifice to meet the different expenses, and to keep the good cause going. Father Boes hopes many will contribute their mite on this occasion.

PRAY FOR DEAD.

The annual pilgrimage of the Catholics of the city to St. Louis and St. Michael's cemeteries in celebration of All Souls' day was held Sunday afternoon and brought out a great throng of people to offer prayers for the dead. The day was warm and bright and the services impressive. At St. Michael's there was the usual procession and at intervals chanting by a special choir. The sermon was preached by one of the fathers from St. Joseph's church.

BEN SAND RETURNS.

Ben J. Sand, who has been here to aid in the re-election of Congressman Shelby, left yesterday morning to return to Detroit, where he is stationed in the Government Immigration Department. Mrs. Sand will remain here a few weeks longer visiting relatives and friends.

POLAND MADE FREE.

The various Irish National organizations which have their central offices in New York, especially since the rebellion in Ireland, are deeply interested in the announcement from Berlin that Germany and Austria have re-established the Kingdom of Poland, which was destroyed by Russia, and that Poland, with a population of 15,000,000, is destined to have a free constitution, to live an independent national life and to govern itself by chosen representatives of the Polish nation. The German Chancellor announces that the Poles are free from Russian oppression.

BISHOP TO REMAIN.

Word has been received in Philadelphia from Rome that Right Rev. John J. McCourt, who some time ago was named as Bishop of Los Angeles, Cal., is to remain in his present office as Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia. This is in response to a request made by Archbishop Prendergast to have Bishop McCourt remain in that city, where his services, it was said, are needed.

CONDUCT OHIO MISSION.

The Rev. Fathers Ripple and Clark, of the St. Louis Bertrand missionary band, are conducting a two weeks' mission at St. Patrick's church, Columbus, Ohio. During the mission every facility will be afforded for the instruction and information of non-Catholics who may be desirous of knowing the teachings of the Catholic church.

FINE VAUDEVILLE BILL.

What promises to be a novel and amusing evening is being arranged by St. Philip Neri's congregation, to take place at Windhorst Hall on Sunday evening, November 26. It will be on the vaudeville order, with sketches, skits, songs, etc., and will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Spaninger.

GETS SAD NEWS.

The sad news was received Monday afternoon by James B. Doherty, of Jeffersonville, that his uncle, Patrick Doherty, who had frequently visited and was known to many in that city, had died from injuries suffered when struck by an electric car at Hamilton, Ohio, his home. The deceased was eighty years old.

WHAT MISSIONARIES NEED.

One way to help the missions is to secure church goods for priests in charge of missionary districts of the country. Many of the little chapels are without the necessary articles for the celebration of mass, and there is hardly a mission chapel that can boast of having a benediction outfit.

You can form your own idea of how "rich" our missions are when you are told that there are over 415 priests in need of vestments, and over 150 in need of ciboria. A set of vestments will cost from $12 up and a ciborium will cost $15. Which of these articles are you going to send a missionary priest? No matter how small your gift may be, you may be sure it will help to lighten the burden of some little missionary and be the cause of making him happy for a little while at least. Whatever your donation may be, send it on to the Catholic Church Extension Society, 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill., where it will be gratefully received.

PREPAREDNESS.

Down in the central part of Louisiana there is a little mission. Any who believe in preparedness. Ever since he became pastor of the mission, some years ago, it has been his chief aim to erect a Catholic school in his parish, for well he knows that without a Catholic school in a bigoted town the children will soon drift away from Mother Church. Is it to our credit to have big, fine churches, but to have no schools? How are these churches to be filled but through our schools, and unless we have the teachers of what use are the schools? Father Joseph Van Bokhoven is the name of the priest who is seeking a donation of $200 to cover the yearly salary of one teacher. The parishioners are very poor, but, nevertheless, they will try to collect among themselves sufficient to pay the other teacher. Any donation sent to the Catholic Church Extension Society, 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill., for Father Van Bokhoven will be promptly forwarded to him.

KLING'S GOOD RACE.

Favorable comments are being heard on all sides concerning the remarkable race made by Ben W. Kling for member of the Board of Education. With an organization of personal friends alone, and opposed by the entire daily press and commercial organizations, he received over 13,000 votes, which is a record for an independent.

WORTHY BENEFIT.

A euchre and lotto will be held in St. Boniface Hall next Tuesday afternoon and evening, the proceeds to be given to Miss Jennie Giles, and her countless friends and acquaintances throughout the city are vying with one another as to who can make the best showing in this worthy enterprise. In all her existence Miss Giles has been ever ready to use her talent in aiding our different Catholic organizations and charities, and the members of the are responding now nobly to make a slight return for her kindnesses. The Committee of Arrangements report that they are more than pleased with the ready willingness of everyone they have approached to aid them in their endeavors.

MARYKNOLL.

A well known priest, Rev. Vincent A. Dever, of the archdiocese of Philadelphia, has entered the American Foreign Missionary Seminary at Maryknoll, Ossining, N. Y. Father Dever is the youngest of four brothers, all priests in the same archdiocese. One of these, the Rev. Daniel A., was for some years Secretary to the Apostolic Delegation; the Rev. John B. is pastor at Hockersville, and the third, Rev. Joseph P., was appointed last year to the pastorate of Tremont. Father Dever's entrance at Maryknoll came as a surprise to his fellow-priests and to his host of friends in and around Philadelphia. The American Foreign Mission Society is made up of secular priests from various dioceses of this country. It numbers at present eight priests, and has an enrollment of twenty students in philosophy and theology, with thirty in its preparatory school near Scranton.

ST. PATRICK'S.

The ladies of St. Patrick's congregation invite everybody to their euchre and lotto party to be held Monday night in the school hall at Thirteenth and Market. There will be many handsome awards and also a consolation prize. The hostesses for the evening will be Mesdames Sarah Patton, William Murphy, Thomas Keenan and Misses Margaret Manion and Mayme Dugan.

BOWLING GREEN WEDDING.

Much interest is felt in Bowling Green society circles in the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Anley and Frank Kiefer III, both popular young people of that city. The wedding will be solemnized the latter part of the month at St. Joseph's church, the Rev. Father Thomas J. Hayes performing the ceremony.
